APPLICATIONS BEING ACCEPTED FOR MAYOR'S YOUTH ADVISORY COMMISSION

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale Mayor Elaine Scruggs is looking for high school students to serve on her youth commission during the 2012-13 school year.

The Mayor's Youth Advisory Commission (MYAC) provides students opportunities to make a positive impact in Glendale by getting involved in their local city government and participating in community service projects.

MYAC members must commit approximately five hours per month to attend mandatory meetings and activities. Commission meetings are held from 7 – 8 p.m. on the fourth Thursday of each month at Glendale City Hall.

A new video that provides students and parents with an overview of the youth commission can be viewed online at www.glendaleaz.com/mayor/myac.cfm.

To be eligible for the commission, teens must submit a completed membership application, reside in Glendale and be enrolled in high school for the 2012-13 school year. Membership is limited to 50 students.

Applications can be downloaded at www.glendaleaz.com/mayor/myac. The deadline to submit an application is Monday, June 4. Completed applications can be dropped off or mailed to: Office of the Mayor, City of Glendale, Attention: Rob Bohr, 5850 W. Glendale Ave., Glendale, AZ 85301. For more information, call Bohr at 623-930-2260. ###
