Mega Book Sale is Back! The Glendale Public Library is holding its Mega Book Sale at the Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St., from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. on Saturday, Mar. 8.

This year's event combines materials from all three libraries for the "best ever" book sale. There will be thousands of books, including hardback, paperback, fiction and nonfiction. But it's not just books! Videocassettes, DVDs, CDs and audio books will be offered, as well. Look for adults, teens and children's titles.

Come early for the best selection, or try 4 p.m. when the best deals occur – everything becomes "one dollar a bag."

For more information about the book sale, call 623-930-3559.

Valley Neighborhood Summits – A Road Map to Crime Prevention In Our Communities.

The Third Annual West Valley Neighborhood Summit will be held on February 23, 2008 at Crosspoint Christian Church, 8600 W. Glendale Ave. The County Attorney's Office, along with West Valley police departments, will be presenting a series of classes designed to better inform citizens about some of the most important issues in the fight against crime. Classes will include property crime prevention, emergency preparedness, trends in drug use, gang awareness, scams, and more.

There will be activities for youth ages 5 and over. Bring your family for a day of crime prevention fun and empowerment.

The event is free and includes breakfast and lunch. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. Lunch begins at noon with keynote address by Maricopa County Attorney Andrew Thomas.

For more information or to sign up call (602) 506-7564 or visit www.mcaoconference.com.
