Councilmember Bart Turner - Glendale, Arizona

March 27, 2015

Councilmember Turner Treats Exceptional Students Club At GCC To Spring Training Game. Students from Glendale Community College's Exceptional Students Club joined Councilmember Bart Turner at Camelback Ranch for an afternoon spring training game where the Los Angeles Dodgers hosted the Arizona Diamondbacks. The students, along with their advisor, enjoyed hot dogs, peanuts, and crackerjacks, sang fervently during the seventh inning stretch, and enjoyed some time away from the classroom.

The West Valley Foundation Hosts 2015 Cesar Chavez Breakfast. The Glendale City Council participated in the 2015 Cesar Chavez Breakfast, hosted by The West Valley Foundation in honor of civil rights activist, and Arizona native, Cesar Chavez. *Councilmember Turner welcomes Tohono O'odham Nation Chairman, Dr. Ned Norris while attending Friday's Event.*

City of Glendale Looking To Fill Youth Positions on City Boards. Glendale currently has vacant youth positions on the Parks and Recreation Commission and the Library Advisory Board. Youth positions are defined as Glendale residents currently enrolled in high school. If a young person you know is interested in being appointed to either of these commissions, please have them contact Kriss Carneal at 623-930-2814 or via e-mail at kcarneal@glendaleaz.com.

Recent Changes to Sky Harbor Flight Paths. On September 18, 2014 the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) implemented changes in flight paths to and from Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport as part of its effort to streamline departures and arrivals using satellite-based navigation. Since then, Phoenix Sky Harbor and the Federal Aviation Administration have received questions and complaints about the changes.

The city of Glendale Airport held a public meeting to discuss the recent changes to the Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport flight paths. The meeting was held on March 4, 2015 where Representatives from city of Glendale presented information and discussed how the changes may affect Glendale residents. Representatives from the cities of Glendale and Phoenix held a question and answer session following the presentation.

Additional information on the flight path changes and FAA regulations can be found online. Residents can also contact the Glendale Municipal Airport by calling 623-930-2188.

Young at Heart - Glendale Union High School District Student Art Exhibition. During April, Gallery Glendale at Westgate will showcase works by the talented students from nine Glendale Union High School District schools.
