Shred It and Forget It. The Glendale Police Department is teaming up with the Arizona Attorney General's Office and the Target Corporation Saturday, April 19, for the city's first "Shred It and Forget It" event. This is a free event designed to promote public awareness about identity theft and fraud prevention. According to the Federal Trade Commission, identity theft impacts at least 9 million people each year. Shredding documents, instead of throwing them in the garbage, is an essential tool in combating identity theft.

Community members are invited to bring their unwanted personal documents to be shredded securely on site, free of charge. Local police officers will be on hand to assist Glendale residents with the shredding of up to three boxes of personal documents at no charge from 9 a.m. until noon at the Target Store located at 10404 N. 43rd Avenue.

Crime Prevention Specialists from the Glendale Police Department and staff from the Arizona Attorney General's Office of Community Services Program will be available to answer questions and give brief identity theft and fraud prevention presentations throughout the event.
