Vice Mayor Yvonne Knaack - Glendale, Arizona

May 10, 2013

Glendale TERROS Facility Opens. TERROS is a healthcare organization providing life solutions for people, families and communities. The new TERROS facility at 6153 W. Olive in Glendale offers integrated services including primary health care provided by a family physician, treatment for substance use disorders and mental health and other behavioral health issues. Patients can see a primary care physician, pick up prescriptions, have lab work done and attend behavioral health services in one convenient location.

TERROS provides a wide range of services at various locations throughout Maricopa County, including mobile crisis intervention, prevention of substance abuse and HIV/AIDS, outpatient treatment and specialized services to assist persons who have a serious mental illness.

TERROS also provides services for families and children, including families referred by Child Protective Services. The goal is to keep people mentally and physically healthy with a heavy emphasis on wellness. For more information about the services provided by TERROS click here or call 602-685-6000.

Glendale CVB Event to Benefit West Valley Child Crisis Center. Live like royalty for a day for a good cause at the Royal-Tea Baby Shower in honor of the Duchess and Duke of Cambridge (Kate and William), who will be parents to a prince or princess soon. This event will be held at The Spicery in Downtown Glendale on Sunday, June 9 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., and will benefit the West Valley Child Crisis Center (WVCCC).

Participants will enjoy an afternoon tea, scones, shortbread and bite-sized assorted sandwiches, baby shower games, royal trivia, a fashion show, delicious desserts and raffle prizes. To create the royal experience, guests are encouraged to come dressed in fine clothes, including their best hats and gloves, and to bring a gift-wrapped donation to benefit WVCCC. The organization is in need of new infant supplies, including clothing, bottles, blankets, wipes, new or like-new baby furniture, new toys, books and plush animals. For more details on these items, visit www.wvccc.org. The gift donations will be opened during the event. The WVCCC provides education, prevention programs and safe placement services to promote healthy family environments for the future of Arizona's children.

Reservations and pre-payment are required. Tickets are $27.95 per person (includes tax and tip). A portion of the proceeds will also be donated to the WVCCC. Ticket sales close on June 1. For reservations and information, call 623-930-2955.

Glendale Summer Band. Glendale's favorite summer tradition is back for its 47th season beginning June 6 in downtown Glendale. The eight-week concert series takes place each Thursday at 8 p.m. June 6 through July 25, in the Murphy Park Amphitheater, located at 59th Avenue and Glenn Drive; with the exception of the holiday week in July, when the concert will be held Wednesday, July 3. Music lovers of all ages will be entertained by this community band of approximately 100 musicians with its renditions of marches, ballads and show tunes.

These free concerts are the perfect night out for the entire family, or bring your friends and neighbors. Bring lawn chairs or blankets for seating. Food, snacks and refreshments will be available for purchase at the concerts. The series will feature a special Patriotic performance on Wednesday, July 3, in celebration of Independence Day.
