Glendale 11 TV Announces New Edition of “Glendale Insider” Glendale 11 TV announces the premiere of the June 2014 edition of the “Glendale Insider” featuring in-depth coverage of the city’s Super Bowl preparations and the return of the annual Glendale Summer Band.

We’ll go in depth with city officials as Glendale gets dressed up along key city streets to celebrate the Super Bowl’s arrival and show you how you can get involved ahead of the big game.

We also talk to former NFL player and Arizona Cardinals great Kurt Warner at the ground-breaking of the highly anticipated mixed use facility, Aspera, and show you why it will mean so much to so many in the West Valley.

Other stories in the 30 minute episode include a feature on the return of the Glendale Summer Band for its 48th season, the Glendale Police Special Olympics Torch Run, the volunteers at the Main Library’s Xeriscape Garden, and an inside look at Glendale City Court as officials host Law Day for Glendale students.

The “Glendale Insider” can be seen on Glendale 11 at various times throughout the day or each individual story can be seen on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11. For more information about Glendale 11 or the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.

Glendale Conservation Programs Invest in Community. Glendale’s water conservation programs are currently featured on the home page of the Arizona Municipal Water Users Association (AMWUA) web site as a “Member Spotlight”.

The spotlight article provides examples of how Glendale’s conservation programs save water AND add value to our community by:

- Being locally relevant
- Offering incentives for neighborhoods and businesses
- Providing homeowners with the tools they need
- Fostering partnerships that benefit everyone
- Including science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) based education in our youth programs

To see the complete article with photos and quotes from program participants go to http://www.amwua.org/glendale_spotlight.php

AMWUA is a non-profit corporation governed by a Board of Directors composed of mayors and council members representing the Valley’s ten-member cities and towns. Since 1971, AMWUA has been a leading advocate for changes to the state’s groundwater management laws, specifically the 1980 Groundwater Management Act which ensures a 100-year water supply for future generations.

Arizona Rick, the Balloon-Making Cowboy. When is a balloon more than a sculpture, a story or a spectacular hat? In the hands of Arizona Rick, it's all this fun and more on Monday June 16, at 2 p.m. at Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave. All ages will enjoy this program made possible through the Reciprocal Borrowing agreement and funded by the Maricopa County Library District. At least one adult must accompany every five children. Tickets (required) will be distributed from the youth department on a first-come, first-served basis at 1:45 p.m. on program day. Space is limited, so we suggest you come early. For more information, call 623-930-3837.

Glendale Community Band Brings Music to Downtown Glendale Summer Evenings. Glendale's favorite summer tradition is back for its 48th season in Downtown Glendale. The eight-week concert series takes place each Thursday at 8 p.m. through July 24, in the Murphy Park Amphitheater, located at 58th and Glenn drives.

Each week will feature a different musical theme.

- June 19: Big Band Bash! Highlights: music of Benny Goodman, Hoagy Carmichael, Glenn Miller and other jazz favorites.

The Glendale Summer Band Concert Series is sponsored by Glendale Civic Pride and Glendale Rotary Club. For more information call the Glendale Special Events hotline, 623-930-2299 or click here.

Wailing Banshee Ghostly Investigations. Professional ghost hunters will teach teens, ages 12-18, and adults how to conduct a paranormal investigation. This free event on Saturday June 21, at 2 p.m., Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., offers participants the opportunity to learn about some of Arizona's most haunted places and receive hands-on experience using the standard ghost-tracking tools of the trade. Register online using the library's event calendar at www.glendaleaz.com/Library/LibraryEvents.cfm or call 623-930-3437.

Summer Fantastic Cartoons Made Simple. Cartoonist Bryan Kilgore will teach students how to use the elements of art and principles of design to create exciting and eye opening compositions, starting Monday June 23 through Thursday June 26, at the Glendale Adult Center, room 104, 5970 W. Brown St.

- 9 a.m.-12 p.m.-for ages 7-10
- 1 p.m.-4 p.m.-for ages 11-14

Students will be driven to draw and expand their creative potential. Students enjoy Bryan's revolutionary way of approaching art using his dynamic slogan, "lines make shapes, shapes make objects, and objects make pictures." Bryan is the creator of bre bre and bj, an enjoyable comic that helps promote literacy, which has been featured on the Maricopa County Library and Phoenix Public Library websites. Bryan Kilgore has been a highly qualified teacher in Arizona for over a decade. He uses Arizona State Standards to help drive his instruction. For more information, call 623-930-3557.
