Glendale’s Annual Gibson Jazz & Blues Festival. The city of Glendale’s Gibson Jazz & Blues Festival will celebrate its 25th year with a tremendous lineup of local, regional and national entertainment in Historic Downtown Glendale April 12-13.

National blues headliners for the festival will include Roomful of Blues, whose latest album currently tops the Billboard Blues chart, and the Tommy Castro Band, whose impressive experience includes touring as the opening act for B.B. King and recording with John Lee Hooker. Jazz headliners will include the Grammy-nominated Stanley Jordan, as well as the legendary David ‘Fathead’ Newman, featuring the Papa John DeFrancesco Trio.

The Glendale Arts Commission is helping commemorate the 25th anniversary of the festival by commissioning an eclectic mix of artisans representing myriad art forms to work on-site, giving event attendees a one-of-a-kind experience to add to the musical performances. The art will range from interactive voice-changing music to improvisational poetry to an incarnation of the music on paper. One of the artists will even create unique sculptures of cacti made from vinyl records.

The city of Glendale’s Gibson Jazz & Blues Festival is not just about music. The event will also feature craft artisans, and delicious food and beverages including wine tasting by Kokopelli Winery.

The event will run 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday, April 12 and Noon to 8 p.m. on Sunday, April 13. Admission and parking are free.

Downpayment Assistance for First-time Home Buyers. The downturn in the local real estate market may benefit prospective, first-time home buyers who have a low to moderate income and are looking for an affordable home. First-time home buyers planning to purchase a home in Glendale, may be eligible for the American Dream Downpayment Initiative (ADDI) program.

Glendale’s Community Revitalization Division is sponsoring the program to offer an interest-free loan of up to $10,000 for eligible home buyers who have a total household income that is 80 percent below median. The program is coordinated by Community Housing Resources of Arizona (CHRA).

For more information or to set up an appointment to begin the application process, click here or call CHRA at (602) 631-9780.

ROAD CONSTRUCTION

67th Avenue Roadway Improvements. Drivers who travel along 67th Avenue from Camelback Road to Glendale Avenue and from Olive Avenue to Thunderbird Road will experience restrictions beginning this month as the city works to add new sidewalks, curbs and other road improvements in the area.

Infrastructure improvements along 67th Avenue from Camelback to Glendale began March 31, 2008 and are scheduled to be complete in Jan. 2009. The second section involves 67th Avenue from Olive Avenue to north of Thunderbird, this construction is scheduled to begin this month and should be complete by April 2009. Read more.

59th Avenue Closure Alert – this weekend. Northbound lanes on 59th Avenue from Deer Valley/Melinda Lane to 55th Avenue will be completely closed from 10 p.m. Friday, April 4 to 10 p.m. Saturday, April 5 as crews work to complete paving. Southbound lanes will remain open.

Glendale Family Bike Ride 2008. Ready, set, ride! That's right, it's time for the annual Glendale Family Bike Ride, and 2008's event promises plenty of family fun and exercise. This year's ride is set for Sunday, April 13 with registration from 7-9 a.m. The Ride begins at 8 a.m. at Sahuaro Ranch Park, 59th Avenue and Mountain View Road. Riders have a choice of a 6- or 12-mile ride. Both routes are on neighborhood streets and segments of the Thunderbird Paseo Pathway. If you have young children riding, you may want to go on the shorter route. Read more.

National Library Week. Join Glendale's Libraries in celebrating National Library Week, April 13-19. National Library Week began in 1958 and is sponsored by the American Library Association. Glendale Public Library is pleased to observe this very special week! Read more.

Relay for life. Each year, across the nation, one event brings entire communities together to take part in the fight against cancer. The event is the American Cancer Society Relay For Life®.

Glendale will host its 4th Relay for Life on April 19-20 from 6 p.m. Saturday until 6 a.m. Sunday. Glendale's Relay will take place on the Ironwood High School football field. Teams make camp for this overnight event while members from each team take turns continuously walking or running around the track.
