“Thank You to Luke Air Force Base.” Councilmember Lieberman is pictured with Col. Henry Reed III at the Glendale Chamber of Commerce “Thank You to Luke Air Force Base” business luncheon. Guests had the opportunity to get acquainted with Col. Reed, Vice Commander, 56th Fighter Wing, who spoke at the event.

Habitat for Humanity. Yet another Habitat for Humanity home has been built in Glendale. The latest Home, a Women’s Build, is located in the Cactus district. Approximately 25 women from the city of Glendale, TruWest Credit Union, Lowe’s and other volunteers helped with the build. Pictured are staff members from Glendale’s Community Partnerships Office who helped paint the interior last Friday. Thanks to all who worked on the home.

Glendale Water Safety Day - May 24. When the temps start to climb we turn to our swimming pools and water recreation spots for fun in the sun. Glendale safety officials urge people to take the right steps to ensure their summer swimming and water fun is safe. As a result, Glendale’s Parks and Recreation Department is teaming up with the Fire Department to bring “Glendale Water Safety Day” to the Rose Lane Aquatics Center, 5003 W. Marlette Ave. The event runs from 11 a.m.-2 p.m., on Saturday, May 24, with free swimming, safety booths, rescue demonstrations and an emergency apparatus display which includes a visit from HALO 151. If you can’t make it to the event, please click here to visit the Fire Department’s “Pool Safety” page. This site contains many valuable tips on how to keep yourself and your children safe around water.

Glendale University Graduate Classes – Environmental Resources. Are you concerned about the city’s future water supply or the safety of your tap water?

This information and more will be provided at an upcoming course about Glendale’s Environmental Resources. Glendale residents, who have previously graduated from the 101 class of Glendale University, are encouraged to register for this continuing education opportunity.

Join us on Thursday, May 29, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. The class will be held at the Glendale Adult Center, located at 5970 W. Brown St., room 102. Registration is due no later than May 23.
