They are the youth division of the Points of Light Institute. GenerationOn gives kids the opportunity to see first-hand the issues in their communities and the tools and resources they need to respond and become part of the solution.

The Glendale Police Department Participates in the Domestic Violence Warrant Round-Up.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, which provides the Glendale Police Department the opportunity to educate the community, emphasize that domestic violence is a crime, warn abusers that they will be prosecuted and offer victims aid and support.

The Domestic Violence Warrant Round-Up culminates National Domestic Violence Awareness Month in October. The round-up is a two and a half day event where Family Violence Detectives lead teams of officers and members of Adult Probation to pursue domestic violence offenders who have been issued warrants for their arrest. This year, over 80 police and probation personnel were involved in the operation. A collaborative effort of Glendale police detention staff, the Glendale City Court and Glendale City Prosecutor's Office provided special jail courts for the influx of new arrestees.

The purpose of the event is to raise domestic violence awareness and to hold domestic violence offenders accountable. This year was the most successful Domestic Violence Warrant Round Up ever for the Glendale Police Department. A total of 37 arrests were made and 68 warrants were cleared as a result of the operation.

The Glendale Police Department would like to remind the public that the Glendale Family Advocacy Center offers numerous resources for victims of family crimes. It is important that victims of domestic violence realize they have choices.

If you or someone you know is in a violent relationship and would like more information, please contact the Glendale Family Advocacy Center at (623) 930-3720. If you are a victim of a domestic violence crime currently being handled by the prosecutor's office, call (623) 930-3323 and a Victim Advocate will assist you with your case.
