ANALYSIS OF IMPEDIMENTS TO FAIR HOUSING CHOICE

The City of Glendale is requesting a qualified firm or organization to conduct and prepare an Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing. The selected firm or organization shall develop the City's analysis according to the requirements by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), assuring participation by special interest groups (low-income persons, disabled, families with children, etc.).

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The City is seeking a qualified firm or organization to conduct and prepare an Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing according to the requirements by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), assuring participation by special interest groups (low-income persons, disabled, families with children, etc.). The City of Glendale has been an entitlement city for Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds since 1977. The funding for this project is made available through CDBG funds. Funds received under the CDBG program are subject to the regulations under Title 24, Part 91 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

An Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice (AI) is a comprehensive review of the City's laws, regulations, administrative policies, procedures and practices in accordance with the Fair Housing Act of 1988. It requires an assessment of how those laws, etc., affect the location, availability and accessibility of housing, and an assessment of conditions, both public and private, affecting fair housing choice.

SCOPE OF WORK

The following tasks comprise the Services to be performed by the selected firm or organization:

1. The AI requires an assessment of how those laws, etc., affect the location, availability and accessibility of housing, and an assessment of conditions, both public and private, affecting fair housing choice.
2. The AI shall incorporate the assistance from Glendale community groups and other agencies to identify existing barriers to fair housing choice.
3. The AI Shall identify impediments that exists in Glendale in the public and private sectors as related to fair housing, and the AI may contain suggestions to address the impediments identified in the analysis.
4. The City shall review and comment on the AI prior to publication, with the right to have the City's comments included in the report.
5. The AI shall be completed within sixty (60) days after award of contract.
