Glendale Police Arrest Homicide Suspect

Glendale, Ariz. – On April 6, 2019 at about 2:27 AM, Glendale Officers responded to the area of 6700 W. Bethany Home Road after a report of a shot spotter activation. A short time later additional calls were received that a male subject was shot and down in the parking lot of 6723 W. Bethany Home Road. Glendale Fire Department responded and pronounced the victim deceased at the scene. Investigation revealed that the victim and the suspect had a brief interaction within the parking lot which ended with the suspect firing multiple rounds striking the victim. The suspect then fled the area in a vehicle. The victim has been identified as Jorge “Daniel” Marmolejo-Jurado 27yo.

During subsequent interviews by detectives, the suspect was identified as Eduardo Lugo-Ramos (20yo). With the suspect’s identity now known, it did not take long for detectives to locate Eduardo and take him into custody. During an interview with Eduardo, he did admit to his involvement and was booked into jail on charges of Second-Degree Murder, two counts of Misconduct Involving Weapons and one count of violating Shannon’s Law.
