Colby Brandt Named New Glendale Police Department Assistant Chief

GLENDALE, AZ. – Glendale Police Chief Chris Briggs has announced that Colby Brandt will be promoted from Police Commander to Assistant Police Chief effective January 18, 2020. Assistant Chief Brandt has served with the Glendale Police Department for nearly 23 years.

“During Assistant Chief Brandt’s 23-year career he has continually demonstrated servant and transformational leadership,” said Glendale Police Chief Briggs. “He instills confidence and trust not only in those who work for him, but also in our community, and his promotion will provide strength and stability in our organization for years to come.”

Assistant Chief Brandt has served in many facets of the organization as a patrol officer, property crimes detective, auto theft detective, patrol sergeant, Neighborhood Response Squad Sergeant, patrol lieutenant, General Investigations Unit Lieutenant, Gateway Patrol Division commander, and until his promotion was the Commander over the Administrative Services Division.

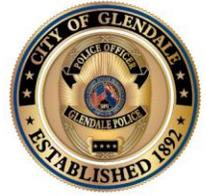

Assistant Chief Brandt received a Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration from Ottawa University, and a Master of Science in Legal Studies from Cal U in 2019. Commander Brandt is a graduate of the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy (FBINA), Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) Drug Unit Commanders Academy and the AZPOST Arizona Leadership Program (ALP).

Prior to his service with the City of Glendale, Assistant Chief Brandt served as a United States
