Glendale Police Seek Assistance in Identifying Fatal Hit and Run Driver

GLENDALE, AZ. – On September 28, 2020 just before 7PM Glendale Police and Fire departments responded to a report of a collision on North 51st Avenue just South of W. Missouri Avenue. The victim, 37-year-old Garry L. Nelson, Jr. (Phoenix resident) was walking south in the two way left turn lane when he was struck from behind by a southbound red Cadillac sedan. Garry was projected into northbound traffic from the impact and died on scene. The red Cadillac left the area without stopping and did not return. The vehicle was recovered the next day a few miles away and abandoned.

Glendale Police Department Vehicular Crimes Detectives are investigating the collision and are asking for the public's help in identifying the driver of the fatal hit-and-run vehicle. The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with any information is asked to contact Silent Witness at 480-WITNESS or 480-TESTIGO for potential reward up to $1000, or the Glendale Police Department at 623-930-3000.
