Glendale Police Awarded DUI Education and Enforcement Grant

GLENDALÉ, AZ. – In support of the Glendale Police Department’s commitment to traffic safety and vehicular collision reductions; the Governor’s Office of Highway Safety has partnered with the Glendale Police Department and awarded the Department a “Driving Under the Influence Education and Enforcement” grant through the DUI Abatement Grant Program.

The DUI Abatement Grant in the amount of 36-thousand-dollars, which runs until December 31, 2023, will assist the Glendale Police Department in educating and providing officers with additional skills necessary in identifying and properly investigating DUI related cases and accidents. The Glendale Police Department participates in DUI enforcement task forces throughout the year to educate and remove impaired drivers off our roadways and highways.

The grant will also assist the Glendale Police Department in funding additional officers and resources to participate in DUI task forces throughout the year.
