(Glendale, AZ) – The Glendale Police Department, along with the Glendale City Court, have designated dates to have individuals with active Glendale domestic violence warrants self-surrender.

This event is an opportunity for people to bring closure to and face current or past incidents that have resulted in the issuance of arrest warrants. Judges and court staff have been set aside for this event and are eager to bring these warrants to an end. This event takes place at the Glendale City Court located at 5711 W Glendale Ave from October 12th-16th between the hours of 8:00am to 4:00pm.

The Glendale City Court will require identification for cases not yet adjudicated or for posting bonds using a credit card. Any lawful photo identification such as driver license or government issued identification card will be accepted. Participants will have to go through a screening process to enter the court building and therefore should not bring any weapons, tools, sharp objects, studded belts, wallets with chains, or any other item that would be considered unsafe.
