

- Bold and innovative design that integrates with surrounding environment.
- Appropriate use of site features and use of earthy colors.

- Generous landscaping.
- Attractive improvements at the entrances of the house.
- Water features to enhance the sub-division by means of amenities.

- Variation in rooflines.

- Southwestern Architectural features.

- Covered portico as integral to the principal structure.
- Integrated covered drive and architectural features enhance the overall design.

