Repeat Offender Discovered with Arsenal of Weapons

Glendale, Ariz. - The Glendale Police Department received a tip reference an individual named Eric Davis. He was described as being a “very boastful gun wielding felon.” Detectives with the Glendale Police Department’s Repeat Offender Squad investigated the matter and confirmed 38 year old Eric Davis was living at a residence in Glendale located in the 8700 block of West Lane Avenue. Detectives learned that Eric Davis had been convicted of multiple prior felonies including possession of dangerous drugs for sale and misconduct involving weapons.

Glendale Police Detectives were able to obtain a search warrant for the residence of Eric Davis. On Thursday morning, December 6th, 2012, Glendale Police served the warrant at the residence and located twelve firearms including assault rifles and semi-automatic handguns. Detectives also located approximately 10,000 rounds of ammunition. Eric Davis was arrested without incident and booked into the 4th Avenue jail for multiple felonies including misconduct involving weapons. See attached booking photo of Eric Davis as well as a photo of some of the weapons and ammunition that were located in the residence.
