GLENDALE HOSTING FREE ART CAMPS FOR TEENS

Glendale, Ariz. — The City of Glendale Public Art Program is offering “Imagination Arts”, a series of free one-week summer art camps for teens ages 13-18 in July and August. Each week-long art camp will be facilitated by artist Christy Puetz. Teens will have the opportunity to experiment with and experience painting, drawing, sculpture making and mixed media projects.

Participants will design and create a unique sculptural figure or animal using wire, aluminum foil, clay, paints, and other mixed medias. To encourage continued art-making throughout the session and on into the upcoming school year, each student artist will be furnished their own individual writing and drawing journal and mark-making tools. All materials and tools will be provided free of charge.
