PUBLIC INPUT SOUGHT FOR AUDIT OF PARKS REGARDING AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Glendale, Ariz. — The Glendale Parks, Recreation and Library Services Department is currently conducting an audit of city parks and recreation facilities with regard to the 2010 U.S. Department of Justice Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) rules and regulations and seeks public input.

The Glendale Parks and Recreation Commission and the Commission on Persons with Disabilities will host an open evening meeting at 6 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 19 at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St. The public is invited to attend and learn about the audit process, the preliminary findings as well as express and share insight regarding ADA accessibility at Glendale's parks.

For more information, please contact the Glendale Parks and Recreation at 623-930-2820.
