CITRUS ZESTIVAL POSTPONED

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – The Glendale Parks and Recreation Department's Citrus Zestival presented by Watermill Express has been postponed due to weather.

The event was scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 23, and will now be held Jan. 30.

The event, celebrating Sahuaro Ranch Park's citrus heritage, will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 30 at the Sahuaro Ranch Park Historic Area, 9802 N. 59th Ave., and features citrus-themed entertainment, cooking demonstrations, a bake off, exhibits, historic home tours, activities and an opportunity to pick your own citrus from the park's grapefruit and orange trees. Admission is free.

Entries are still wanted for the Citrus Zestival Bake-Off Contest. Bring a homemade citrus baked good to the event. A panel of local guest judges will evaluate the entries and first through third place will receive ribbons and recognition at the event and on the Sahuaro Ranch Park Historic Area web site. It is free to enter, but registration is required by Wednesday, Jan. 29.

As part of Glendale's yearlong Centennial celebration, the event also features a debut of the Centennial Cookbook called A "Taste of Glendale - 100 years in the Making," which will include more than a dozen recipes from Glendale's people and history. Cooking demonstrations will include some of the cookbook recipes and cooks!

The Glendale Ambassadors will also be providing a community breakfast from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at the venue. The breakfast is $5 for adults and $3 for children.

For more information about the Citrus Zestival, call 623-930-4200.
