MAYOR SCRUGGS TO HOST SERIES OF TOWN HALL MEETINGS THIS FALL

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Mayor Elaine Scruggs is inviting residents to attend one of the community meetings she will be hosting this fall to discuss important policy issues that will shape Glendale’s present and future.

The meetings are being held as part of the mayor’s Community Conversations initiative she created several years ago to help her reach out to residents on important issues.

“Citizen input is essential to the success of local government, and community participation has been a cornerstone to Glendale’s many accomplishments over the years,” Scruggs said.

“Community Conversations provide citizens the opportunity to ask questions in a small group setting and to exchange ideas and perspectives with residents living throughout our city. These meetings are times of lively discussions about topics and issues that are the most important to our entire city.”

The Community Conversations meetings will be held:

Thursday, October 9 - 6:30 p.m.
Dove of the Desert United Methodist Church
7201 W. Beardsley Rd.

Thursday, October 18 - 9 a.m.
