GLENDALE COUNCILMEMBER SAM CHAVIRA HIGHLIGHTS KEEPING YOUR FAMILY SAFE ON “GLENDALE TODAY”

Glendale, Ariz. Councilmember Sam Chavira of the Yucca District focuses on the very important topic of safety awareness on his new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today.” Councilmember Chavira’s guest on the program is Glendale Fire Chief Terry Garrison, and the interview covers the Chief’s advice for being safe at work, in traffic, around water and overall safety strategies every family should know.

June marked ‘National Safety Month’ and the show first highlights personal safety, the importance of learning Continuous Chest Compression (CCC) and the many city programs offered to families regarding drowning prevention and keeping safe around water. The second half introduces viewers to new Fire Chief Garrison, who started as a Phoenix firefighter in 1977 and worked in various fire departments including most recently as Fire Chief in Houston, Texas. Here’s a sneak peek at the show.

The show begins airing Friday, July 8 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 and also be available through the city’s online video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
