GLENDALE SANITATION DIVISION OFFERS “DESIGN-A-SIGN” CONTEST

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale children have the opportunity to display their artwork on the side of a city sanitation truck through the Sanitation Division’s 2nd Annual “Design-A-Sign” contest.

Children ages 6-9 are encouraged to submit artwork highlighting the theme: “Recycling is Fun.” Four winners will be selected, one from each age group. All qualified participants will receive a certificate of recognition and a special prize. In addition, the artwork from each of the four winners will be featured on Glendale sanitation trucks from Earth Day (April 22) through America Recycles Day (Nov. 15).

All artwork must be submitted on 8 ½” x 11” paper by Friday, March 17. Entries will be judged for creativity, use of color, relevance to theme and adherence to contest rules. The contest is open to residents of Glendale only. One entry per child.

Mail entries to City of Glendale Field Operations, Attn: Design-A-Sign Contest, 6210 W. Myrtle Ave., Suite 111, Glendale, AZ 85301-1700. Include the child’s name and age, mailing address, city, state, zip, home phone number and school. For additional contest information, call (623) 930-2660.
