LEARN THE EARLY SIGNS OF ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE AT VELMA TEAGUE LIBRARY FEBRUARY 15

Glendale, Ariz. — An estimated 5.2 million Americans have Alzheimer's disease, which is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States. Glendale's Velma Teague Branch Library will host "The Early Signs of Alzheimer's Disease" at 2 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 15.

Martha Burruel from the Arizona Alzheimer's Association (Desert Southwest Chapter of the national organization) will discuss the early symptoms and stages of this devastating illness with a question and answer session to follow. This program is free and open to the public but registration is required.

The Arizona Alzheimer's Association's mission is to empower and support individuals, families, care partners and communities affected by dementia in Arizona and southern Nevada. For more information about the Arizona Alzheimer's Association, visit www.alz.org/dsw.

The Velma Teague Branch Library is located at 7010 N. 58th Ave. For information or to register for this program, call 623-930-3431 or visit www.glendaleaz.com/Library/LibraryEvents.cfm.
