FAIR HOUSING LAW CLASSES AVAILABLE FOR TENANTS AND OWNERS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Community Legal Services, in conjunction with the city of Glendale’s Community Revitalization and Community Housing divisions are providing two free presentations on Fair Housing laws as part of National Fair Housing Month in April.

- Your Rights and Fair Housing Laws

3 p.m., Wednesday, April 25, Glendale Public Library Auditorium, 5959 W. Brown St.

Tenants and those who would like to learn more about current Fair Housing laws can learn how to determine discrimination, what to do if they have been discriminated against and how to file a complaint with the Arizona Attorney’s General’s Office.

- Your Responsibilities and Fair Housing Laws

3 p.m., Wednesday, May 9, Glendale Public Library Auditorium, 5959 W. Brown St.

Property owners, property managers, and those who work in real estate can learn more about current Fair Housing laws and the requirements and guidelines, recent changes to Fair Housing laws and statistics on the types of Fair Housing complaints that are filed.

Space is limited for both presentations. For more information, call 623-930-3670.
