February Teen Activities at Velma Teague Branch Library

Glendale, Arizona –Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., is planning the following free activities for young adults, ages 12-18, in February:

Thursday, February 8 Teen Paper Bead Craft

Have you been searching for that perfect Valentine's Day gift? Stop by the Teen Zone at Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., at 6 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 8 for "Teen Paper Bead Craft." Learn how to transform the pages of an old magazine into unique and funky beads. All materials to make a beaded bracelet or necklace will be provided.

To make this jewelry masterpiece, simply use a template to cut out long triangle-shaped areas of various magazine pages. Starting with the wide end first, wrap the triangle around a chopstick, cover it in decoupage, and then slide it off the chopstick to dry. Use the beads and hemp twine to create the bracelet or necklace.

Register by calling 623-930-3431.

Saturday, February 10 – SAT Practice Test Thursday, February 15 – SAT Strategy Session

Planning on going to college and dread taking the new SAT college exam? Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave, and The Princeton Review of Arizona are letting teens try out the new test for free under true-to-life testing conditions at from 1-5 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 10 at the "SAT Practice Test." Get your results, learn test-taking strategies, and find out about tools for researching colleges and financial aid when you return for a "SAT Strategy Session" at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 15.

Registration is required for both events. Call the library at 623-930-3431, The Princeton Review at 1-800-2REVIEW, or register online at www.princetonreview.com.

Saturday, February 10 RuneScape Club

Pick the time that is best for you, from 1-2 p.m. or from 2-3 p.m., on Saturday, Feb. 10 at Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., to take part in the “RuneScape Club.” If you are between the ages of 10-15 and you want to escape into a world of fantasy, where you become an adventurer and play with thousands of other gamers, then this event is perfect for you. The RuneScape Club will be held one Saturday a month.

RuneScape is an online Internet game that takes place in the fantasy-themed realm of Gielinor. Players can travel throughout the game world on foot or use magical teleportation, gnome gliders, fairy rings and other means to explore. Each region offers different types of monsters, materials and quests to challenge players. RuneScape is more than just a game—it is an evolving world of remarkable depth and flexibility.

Call 623-930-3431 to register for these free programs.

Thursday, February 15 Teen Library Council Meeting

Are you looking for something fun to do that actually makes a difference? By joining the Teen Library Council, young adults can earn volunteer service hours, have a good time and meet new people, all while helping make the library a better place for your peers.

See if the Teen Library Council is for you. Attend the next meeting from 6:30-7:30 p.m. on Thursday, February 15 at the Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave. The library is currently recruiting teens, ages 12-18, to provide input on the selection of books and music for the branch’s teen collection. Council members would also participate in the planning of library teen events. The teen council meets for one hour on the third Thursday of the month. Call Greg at 623-930-3431 for more information.

Friday, February 23 “Teen Pick” Movie Matinee

Teens, how would you like to watch a big screen movie in surround sound? Popcorn and soda will be provided when you drop in to the “Teen Pick Movie Matinee” at 2 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 23 at Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave.

Three popular movies will be available to watch. The group will vote on the one to be screened.

The program is free for teens, ages 12-18. No reservation is required. For more information, call 623-930-431.
