GLENDALE GENERAL ELECTION ON TUESDAY, RESULTS WILL BE AVAILABLE ON TV AND ONLINE

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale’s General Election is Tuesday, Nov. 6, and the City Clerk’s Office reminds voters that polling sites will be open from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. Polling locations can be found on the city’s website at www.glendaleaz.com/clerk under ‘Elections.’

The General Election includes the office of Mayor, the city council seats in the Sahuaro, Cactus and Yucca council districts and Proposition 457. During the Primary Election in August, none of the Mayoral candidates or city council candidates in those districts received 50 percent plus one of the votes necessary to be elected.

On election night, the city will provide election results via both Glendale 11 TV and the city website at www.glendaleaz.com. Residents can tune into Glendale Channel 11 to view a scrolling graphic with updated results from the Maricopa County Elections Department or visit Glendale’s website for a link to the county recorder’s site for up-to-date results: www.glendaleaz.com/clerk.

Election questions can also be answered by the Maricopa County Elections Department at (602) 506-1511. For more information, call the Glendale City Clerk’s Office at (623) 930-2252 (press option #1).
