GLENDALE 11'S NEW STADIUM SHOW PROVIDES EXTENSIVE LOOK AT GRAND OPENING

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale Channel 11 gives viewers a front row seat for a new TV program called “Glendale’s Got Game Grand Opening.” The 30-minute magazine style show takes viewers behind the scenes, providing an in-depth look at history in the making during the first few weeks surrounding the grand opening of the Cardinals Stadium in Glendale. The show, which will debut Friday Sept. 15 at 6 p.m, was created to rally the special moment in time of the stadium’s unveiling and the excitement throughout the community.

Glendale 11 co-hosts, Jon Bricton and Julie Watters capture the viewer’s interest by providing essential elements about the facility and surrounding area. The show’s dramatic music and fast moving look and feel, blends together interviews from excited fans and leaders who helped build the stadium. Viewers also travel back in time to chronicle significant events such as the momentous vote by the Glendale City Council Members and the groundbreaking that turned the farm field into the future site.

“Glendale’s Got Game Grand Opening” will air in a regular time slot on Glendale Channel 11 on Mondays at 8 p.m. as well as several times daily.

Glendale 11 airs on Cox and Qwest Channel 11, 24-hours a day, seven days a week. For a complete television guide, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
