It's Ghosts and Goblins Time

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Ghosts. Goblins. Bats. Pumpkins. Black cats. Candy, lots and lots of candy – these are all symbols of a fun Halloween experience.

Glendale's public libraries have various levels of thrilling encounters for all ages, from youth to adult occurring prior to the big day.

Programs scheduled at Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St.:

- “An Evening of Edgar Allan Poe & Other Tales.” Thursday, October 26 at 7 p.m. in auditorium. Adults and older youth will enjoy a walk on the dark side with poet/narrator David Chorlton and his violinist wife Roberta. Roberta's improvisational skills on the violin made her collaboration with David a memorable experience. Call 623-930-3573 for more information about this free program.
- “Halloween Haunted Library.” Saturday, Oct. 28 from 5:30-7 p.m. in the large meeting room. Children, ages 8-11, will enjoy meeting library “ghosts” at this spooky after-hours event. Games, mummy wrapping, creepy crafts and Halloween treats are on the fun schedule. Register for this free programs by calling 623-930-3537.
- “Know Your Spooks!” Saturday, Oct. 28 from 7-11 p.m. Teens, ages 12-18, will get a jump-start on Halloween with a costume-optional after hours event. The Glendale Main Library Teen Library Council has planned a totally fun, free evening of pizza, prizes and the unexpected! A costume contest will be held. Register by calling 623-930-3537.

Halloween-themed programs at Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., include:

- “Ghost Hunting @ the Teague.” Thursday, Oct. 26 at 7-8:30 p.m. in the meeting room. Do you believe in ghosts? Even if you do not, the
