GLENDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY RAFFLING AUTOGRAPHED HUNGER GAMES PHOTO

Glendale, Ariz. — The Glendale Public Library is raffling an autographed and framed photograph of The Hunger Games movie heroine, Katniss Everdeen, played by Jennifer Lawrence, and her best friend and hunting pal, Gale Hawthorne, played by Liam Hemsworth. Proceeds will benefit Glendale Public Library youth and teen programs.

When The Hunger Games book by Suzanne Collins came out it took the world by storm. It's no wonder that when this page-turner was recently released as a movie it became an instant blockbuster.

“This book, and now movie, has inspired non-readers to read, spurred a fashion revolution, and has even reminded us of the importance of inner-strength,” said Glendale Main library teen librarian, Merideth Jenson-Benjamin. “We’re excited to have the opportunity to raffle off such an awesome piece of movie memorabilia.”

Raffle tickets are $1 (suggested donation) and can be purchased at the circulation desks of the Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St., Velma Teague Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., or the Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave. The winner of the raffle will be announced August 18.
