How to Pay for College from the Experts

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Is it too late to apply for scholarships? Is there financial aid for nursing students? Are there scholarships for two-year college students? Are there performing arts scholarships? Are there scholarships for left-handed students? What scholarships are there for studying abroad? If I live on campus, can I be independent from my parents for financial aid?

These are just a few of the questions asked Gen and Kelly Tanabe, award-winning authors of “Sallie Mae’s How to Pay for College” and “Get Free Cash for College.” They will be in the large meeting room of Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St., at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 30 to present “How to Pay for College.”

The duo won more than $100,000 in scholarships and graduated from Harvard debt free.

They will explain how to find scholarships and grants, write a powerful scholarship application and essay, plus maximize financial aid options.

The program is free. For more information, call 623-930-3537.
