Musical Journeys Harks Back to Another Era

GLENDALE, Ariz. – There has been a resurgence in appreciation for music of the ‘30s, ‘40s and ‘50s – and nobody knows that fact better than the quartet Musical Journeys. They are making toes tap and bringing smiles to faces with music like Doris Day’s “Sentimental Journey,” Glenn Miller’s “Chattanooga Choo-Choo,” Bing Crosby’s “Swing on a Star,” Patsy Cline’s “Crazy,” Hank William’s “Your Cheatin’ Heart,” Bill Hailey’s “Rock Around the Clock,” and relative “newcomer” George Strait’s “All My Exes Live in Texas.”

Musical Journeys will perform at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, July 25 in the Roadrunner Room at Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave. The group will also be doing a patriotic medley and Broadway show tunes.

All ages will enjoy this return to the past.

The program is free. Call 623-930-3846 for more information.
