COUNCILMEMBER PHIL LIEBERMAN APPOINTED
VICE CHAIR OF NATIONAL LEAGUE OF CITIES' COUNCIL

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale Councilmember Phil Lieberman is the new vice chairman of the National League of Cities' University Communities Council.

The University Communities Council is a voluntary group of elected officials from municipalities with a university or institution of higher education within its borders that serves to foster a spirit of cooperation between universities, colleges and city governments.

As vice chair, Lieberman will lead efforts to assist cities and state municipal leagues in gathering, sharing and analyzing information about opportunities, issues and policies of interest to university communities. Lieberman has been a member of the national council for the past seven years.

“The year ahead will be critical for the future of this country and for our cities and towns,” said National League of Cities' President Cynthia McCollum. “I will look to the leadership of our committees, panels and councils to help define our expectations and sharpen our message on behalf of our municipalities.”

The National League of Cities is the country's oldest and largest organization devoted to strengthening and promoting cities as centers of opportunity, leadership and governance. The national association is a resource and advocate for 19,000 cities, towns and villages, representing more than 218 million
