GLENDALE FAMILY RECEIVES NEW POOL FENCE FROM HOME DEPOT

- WHO: A Glendale family with young children will receive a brand new pool fence.
- WHAT: To combat the 22 child drownings that occurred in Maricopa County last year, the city of Glendale has partnered with Home Depot, who has donated the pool fence and its employees, to install it at no cost to the family
- WHERE: 4331 W. Mountain View Road
- WHEN: Wednesday, May 17, 1 - 2 p.m.
- WHY: The Glendale Fire Department will be available for interviews on watching children around water, the importance of installation of pool fences and the importance of making sure your child learns to swim
- CONTACT: Kimberly Larson, 623-640-5747
