LIBRARY HOSTS MATH TUTORING FOR GED EXAM

Glendale, Ariz. — Need help brushing up on your math skills for the GED? Drop by for a tutoring session at 6 p.m., Mondays, May 5, 12 or 19 in the Velma Teague Branch Library's Storytime Room, 7010 N. 58th Ave.

Each two-hour tutoring session is designed to enhance the math skills needed for the GED examinations. Tutor Michael Horton is a graduate of University of California Berkeley and has more than 700 hours tutoring experience, including English as a second language classes, and will provide the coaching.

Teen and adults can take advantage of the tutoring and no registration is required. This free program is supported with funds granted by the Arizona State Library, Archives, and Public Records Agency, a division of the Arizona Secretary of State, under the Library Services and Technology Act, which is administered by the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

For more information on this program, call 623-930-3431. For more information on activities held at Glendale's Velma Teague Branch Library, visit www.glendaleaz.com/library.
