MAYOR ELAINE SCRUGGS HOSTING
COMMUNITY MEETING MARCH 15

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Mayor Elaine Scruggs will be hosting her next Community Conversations meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 15 at the First United Methodist Church, 7102 N. 58th Drive.

The main topics of the March 15 meeting will include updated city of Glendale budget information and the status of the Tohono O’odham application to create an Indian reservation within the city’s boundaries. In addition, the status of the Phoenix Coyotes and their future in Glendale will be discussed.

The mayor’s Community Conversations meetings are designed to encourage an open dialogue with residents on important policy issues that affect the entire city today and into the future.

The meeting is open to all residents, but seating is limited and pre-registration is required in order to attend. To register, please call 623-930-2260 or visit www.glendaleaz.com/RSVP.

Due to the overwhelming response the Mayor’s Office has already received from residents, those registering after capacity is reached will be placed on a numbered waiting list and will be notified if reservations are cancelled and seats open up.
