LEARN HOW YOUR SMALL BUSINESS CAN "DO BUSINESS" WITH PUBLIC AGENCIES AT PURCHASING FAIR

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Small business owners can learn how to "do business" with public agencies and large corporations by attending "Mastering the Purchasing Maze VI" from 7:45 a.m. - 12:00 p.m., Thursday, March. 6, 2008 at ASU West's La Sala Building, 4701 W. Thunderbird Rd.

More than 90 purchasing representatives from city, county and state governments, school districts and colleges, federal agencies and military bases will be present to provide information, business-building tips and answer questions.

The free purchasing fair, which is targeted to small, minority and women-owned companies, also will offer workshops on topics geared to conducting business with these agencies and how to bid on requests for the purchase of programs and services.

Mastering the Purchasing Maze VI is sponsored by ASU West, Luke Air Force Base, the City of Glendale, and several other West Valley communities and organizations.
