GLENDALE'S NEW REGIONAL TRAVEL PLANNER HIGHLIGHTS
AMAZING LOCATIONS IN THE WEST VALLEY

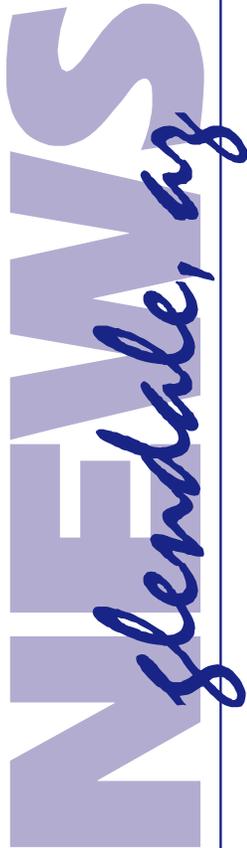

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Whether you are visiting, lived here for a week or for a lifetime, the new Glendale 2012 travel guide provides readers information about the many attractions and accommodations offered in the city of Glendale and West Valley. The magazine features “52 ultimate weekends and things to do every day in between,” highlighting what you can do in the West Valley as a couple, a family or even for a little “me” time.

Inside the travel planner visitors and residents will find vital information about key destinations, events, maps and activities along with information about Glendale’s online tool kit. On a daily basis, leisure travelers, sports fans, tour guide operators, visitor centers, chambers of commerce, travel agents and media outlets request and receive copies of the planner. This full-size visitor magazine costs the city nothing to produce and is fully supported by advertisers.

For the environmentally conscious, visit www.visitglendale.com for a fully interactive online version of the publication. The user-friendly online version allows visitors who are planning their trip to the West Valley to access information right away and begin building their list of must-see things to see and do.

To pick up a copy of the guide, stop by the Glendale Visitor Center located at 5800 W. Glenn Drive, #140 in downtown Glendale. Center hours are Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. For additional information, www.visitglendale.com or call the Glendale Visitor Center at 623.930.4500.
