COYOTES AND CITY OF GLENDALE JOIN FORCES TO CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL

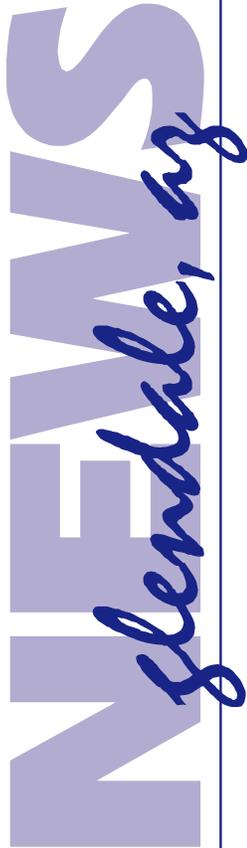

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The city of Glendale is turning 100 and the Coyotes are joining in the fun by hosting hundreds of students for Flat Murphy Glendale Centennial Night, Thursday, Dec. 3, at the Phoenix Coyotes/Calgary Flames game. The game begins at 7:30 p.m. at Jobing.com Arena.

Flat Murphy is based on the popular children's character Flat Stanley, but with a twist. The city's version is a gingerbread man who is named 'Murphy' after W. J. Murphy, Glendale's founder. The Flat Murphy project culminates Dec. 4 and 5 at Gingerbread Nights at Glendale Glitters in Murphy Park located in downtown Glendale.

Students from all over the Valley are encouraged to attend this game and become part of the Flat Murphy Project. Ticket discounts for students and families are available at www.glendaleaz.com/centennial. Students may also download a picture of Flat Murphy on this site to decorate and bring along to the game. Howler will be available for photos during the second intermission outside of section 105 on the south end of the concourse next to the Glendale Centennial table.

In addition, the first 100 kids with their Flat Murphys that visits the Glendale Centennial table will receive a special Coyotes gift.

For more information about Glendale's upcoming centennial activities and events, visit www.glendaleaz.com. Tickets may also be purchased by calling 480.563.PUCK or visit www.phoenixcoyotes.com.
