THIS FRIDAY NITE LIGHTS IS AN AFFAIR TO REMEMBER

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Continuing to celebrate Glendale’s Centennial year, the Historic Downtown business community invites shoppers to honor Glendale’s past while making new memories at this month’s Friday Nite Lights, Friday, Sept. 17, from 5 to 9 p.m. in Historic Downtown Glendale.

Shoppers may visit participating stores to pick up a memory scrapbook page, which features the history and story of the individual merchant/business. At the end of the night, participants will take the pieces of the scrapbook to The Creative Quest, located at 7146 N. 57th Drive to assemble and decorate the finished book.

Other activities include live entertainment, refreshments and a special American folk-art trunk show at The Country Maiden. Representatives from Glendale’s Historic Sahuaro Ranch and the Glendale Woman’s Club will feature an historical display in Caitlin Court.

Visitors are encouraged to start the evening at the Glendale Convention & Visitors Bureau to pick up the participating merchant map and to take a spin on the prize wheel. Prizes include a wide variety of Shop Glendale items, history books, cookbooks, historical postcards and more. Historical memorabilia such as the Glendale History Book (Our Past, Our Progress, Our People,) the Glendale Centennial commemorative postmarked envelope and the Centennial cookbook (A Taste of Glendale) will be available for sale.
