GLENDALE PLANNING DIRECTOR NAMED ARIZONA PLANNING ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Jon Froke, Planning Director for the city of Glendale has been elected by his peers of city and urban planners to serve as the president of the Arizona American Planning Association (AzAPA).

The AzAPA is the trade association for public sector and private sector planners across the state of Arizona. The Arizona Planning Association is an official chapter of the American Planning Association. The Arizona Chapter is a 1,400 plus member organization of professional planners and planning officials who serve Arizona's communities in many ways, at all levels of government, the private sector and not-for-profit organizations.

Froke has served as Glendale's Planning Director since 2001 and will serve a three year term as President. For more information, visit <http://www.azplanning.org>.
