CITY ANNOUNCES NEW CLASS FOR GRADUATES OF GLENDALE UNIVERSITY

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Registration is now available for a continuing education opportunity for Glendale residents who have previously graduated from the 101 class of Glendale University. Registration for this graduate class is due no later than Friday, Sept. 18. To register, visit: www.glendaleaz.com/communitypartnerships and click on graduate classes to print out an application or call 623-930-2868 to receive an application by mail or fax.

Glendale City Court - “Domestic Violence and Mock Trial”

In this class, participants will see first-hand the operation of the municipal court system. The Glendale City Court tries criminal and civil traffic violations, as well as non-traffic criminal misdemeanor cases. Some of the cases the court handles include driving under the influence, drag racing, child restraint violations and assault.

This two-session class will focus on learning the Domestic Violence laws in Arizona. The first night also will cover the role of the prosecutor, defense attorney, judge and jury. The second night will be an interactive session where the students participate in a mock trial. Both classes will be held at the Glendale City Court complex, located at 5711 W. Glendale Ave. from 6 -8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 23 and Thursday, Sept. 24. Please leave all non-essential items at home, as all students will pass through security prior to entering the court room.
