CITY ANNOUNCES NEW CLASS ON PUBLIC SAFETY FOR GRADUATES OF GLENDALE UNIVERSITY 101

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Registration is now available for a continuing education opportunity for Glendale residents who have previously graduated from the Glendale University 101 program. This free class will be held Thursday, Sept. 12, 1-4 p.m. at the Glendale Regional Public Safety Training Center, located at 11550 W. Glendale Avenue.

The half-day class on Glendale Public Safety Training will focus on how Glendale firefighters and police officers are trained to help keep our community safe. Students will also be involved in some interactive training activities and will receive a tour of the training facility.

Registration is open through Monday, Sept. 9. The class is limited to 20 students. To register, visit www.glendaleaz.com/education and click on “Glendale University” to enroll online. You can also print out a “Glendale University Graduate” application or call 623-930-2868 to receive an application by mail or fax.

Participants should be aware that the class will involve a lot of walking, climbing stairs and some strenuous activities. Students should wear comfortable clothing and shoes.

For more information, call 623-930-2868 or visit www.glendaleaz.com/education.
