CITY OF GLENDALE TO HOST GREEN FESTIVAL MARCH 26

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The fourth annual Glendale Green Festival will be held noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Mar. 26, at the Glendale Main Library and surrounding Xeriscape Demonstration Garden located at 5959 W. Brown Street.

This free something-for-everyone event is a great opportunity for people of all ages to learn about water and energy efficiency, recycling, gardening, alternative modes of transportation, and other green-living practices.

The festival will feature:

- Tree care workshops and a tree give-away. Everyone is invited to attend tree care workshops. Glendale residents who register in advance for the tree workshops are eligible to receive one free tree per residence.
- The Family Zone, powered by Radio Disney's Team Green. Little ones can learn about simple ways to help their families go green, make eco-friendly arts and crafts, and sing and dance along with Team Green.
- A Green Zone. Booths and displays from more than two dozen local agencies and businesses help take the guess work out of living a greener lifestyle.
- My Green Glendale photo and art contests. New this year, Glendale students and homeowners are invited to enter the "My Green Glendale" bookmark
