2007 NEIGHBORHOOD LEADERSHIP FORUM FOCUSES ON LEADING CHANGE IN THE COMMUNITY

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale’s Citizens Advisory Commission on Neighborhoods and Community Partnerships Department will host its annual “Neighborhood Leadership Forum” on Saturday, June 23, from 7:30 a.m. to noon. at the Glendale Civic Center, located at 5750 W. Glenn Drive.

The theme for the event is “Glendale: Leading Change”, and it is free and open to all Glendale residents, neighborhood leaders and business owners. Mayor Elaine Scruggs and members of the City Council will also be in attendance, and several of Glendale’s departments will have information booths on display.

The Commission will announce the six Spark Award recipients during the breakfast event, including a new category focusing on youth. The Spark Awards recognize individuals and organizations for their exemplary leadership and continued contributions and dedication to Glendale.

Following the awards ceremony, the keynote address will be given by Leon Quan, a nationally known motivational speaker and author. The final portion of the program will feature a presentation by The Arizona Republic to display their new online blog called “Community Conversations.”

To register for this free event or for more information, call 623-930-2125 or send an e-mail to leadership@glendaleaz.com by June 15. Space is limited.
