CITIZENS INVITED TO DEDICATION CEREMONY FOR NEW GLENDALE PUBLIC SAFETY MEMORIAL

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The community is invited to the dedication ceremony for the new Glendale Public Safety Memorial at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 4, in the Glendale Civic Center Plaza, 5750 W. Glenn Drive. The memorial honors two police officers and one firefighter killed in the line of duty in Glendale. The names of the fallen include:

- Fire Engineer Lester Hillis – September 7, 1974
- Sergeant Pat Campbell – September 22, 1985
- Officer Anthony Holly – February 19, 2007

During the 45-minute ceremony, there will be tributes to each of the men, highlights about the memorial and its unique design, comments from Glendale Mayor Elaine Scruggs and special performances from the Mountain Ridge High School Honor Choir.

The 15-foot-tall bronze memorial features two police officers and two firefighters rescuing a child while connected by an eternal flame. Behind the statue is a 28-foot-long granite wall with plaques of honor with background information on Hillis, Campbell and Holly.

Coordinators of the memorial and the event include: The Glendale Public Safety Memorial Committee, Glendale Arts Commission, Glendale Police Department, Glendale Fire Department and Glendale Marketing/Communications Department.

Free public parking is available in the Promenade Parking Garage at 58th and Paltaire avenues and Glendale City Hall at 59th Avenue and Glenn Drive.
