CITY OFFERS FREE CONTINUING EDUCATION CLASSES FOR GLENDALE RESIDENTS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Registration is now available for two continuing education opportunities for Glendale residents who have completed the basic “101” course offered through Glendale University:

GRADUATE CLASS ON HOMELAND SECURITY

Applications for a class on Homeland Security are available. The class will be held on Thursday, June 28, from 6 to 8:30 p.m. at the Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St., in Room 102. Students will learn more about the city’s disaster preparation and Homeland Security Department and receive tips on planning for personal safety.

“THERE GROWS THE NEIGHBORHOOD” GRADUATE CLASS

This five-session educational program is open to residents who want to learn more about the programs and services offered by the Community Partnership Department. Residents will gain a greater appreciation of the city’s many diverse neighborhoods and the issues that challenge them. A tour of the community will be included.

The five-week “There Grows the Neighborhood” class will be offered at 6 p.m. on Wednesdays, Aug. 1-29, at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St., in Room 106.

To register, visit www.glendaleaz.com/communitypartnerships and click on “Glendale University” or call 623-930-2868 to receive an application by mail or fax.
