GLENDALE 11 RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION FOR OUTSTANDING TV PROGRAM

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale 11, the city’s cable TV station, is the recipient of a Telly Award in recognition of its outstanding programming in the Information Program category. Glendale 11 received a Bronze Award for “Glendale Dimensions with City Manager Ed Beasley.”

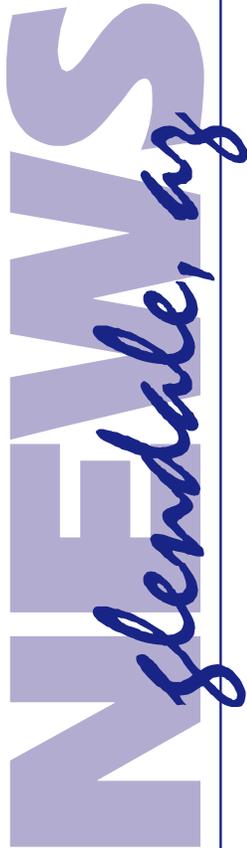

The Telly Awards honor the best in local, regional and national cable television programs and commercials as well as the finest video and film productions. The Telly Awards receive more than 14,000 entries from all 50 states and 5 continents.

“Glendale Dimensions” is a 30 minute interview show hosted by Glendale City Manager Ed Beasley. The award-winning episode features Beasley interviewing Mickey Ollson, zoo director for the Wildlife World Zoo. The show takes a comprehensive look at the zoo’s impact on the community, while highlighting its educational outreach and interactive exhibits. The program also gave a sneak preview of the zoo’s new 35,000-square-foot aquarium, which at the time of the show was under construction.

“It’s an honor to receive a highly respected national award for one of our top community programs,” said Julie Frisoni, Assistant Deputy City Manager for the City of Glendale. “This Telly Award reflects our high standards of excellence and the importance of providing our residents with important, information in creative and innovative ways.”

Emmy Award-winning Glendale 11 airs on Cox and Qwest Channel 11, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. For a complete viewer’s program guide, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
