

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Kimberly Larson, 602-689-3827
Public Relations Office

June 13, 2012

GLENDALE SUMMER BAND CELEBRATES THE CIRCUS, AMERICAN COMPOSERS AT THEMED CONCERTS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Glendale’s Summer Band concert series is in full swing, with more than 100 musicians delighting audiences with free musical entertainment each Thursday evening at 8 p.m. Two special themed concerts are coming up that music fans will want to mark on their calendars – June 21 is a Tribute to the Circus; June 28’s performance will feature All American Composers.

Relive the magic and wonder of the circus as the community band performs a Tribute to the Circus on Thursday, June 21, an evening sure to bring back wonderful memories from childhood. Added fun includes free clown noses for the first 250 people in attendance, courtesy of Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus. “The Greatest Show on Earth” hits the Valley June 27-July 2, and one lucky family will win a family four-pack of tickets to a scheduled performance! This contest can be entered in person at the concert or online at www.Facebook.com/ArizonasBestFestivals by clicking on the Circus Contest tab. The tickets will be given away via random drawing during intermission of the concert, but winners need not be present to win.

The following week, June 28, the Summer Band will present its traditional patriotic performance, All American Composers, in honor of Independence Day.

Sponsored by Glendale’s Office of Special Events, the concert series runs through July 26, in the Murphy Park Amphitheater, located at 58th and Glenn drives. Food, snacks and refreshments will also be available for purchase in the park.

Those who may not be able to make the event can still enjoy the sights and sounds of the concert, as live video and audio streaming is available on the city’s website at www.glendaleaz.com. For more information, call Glendale’s Special Events hotline at 623-930-2299, or visit www.glendaleaz.com/events.

###