SPRING TIME BRINGS OUT VISITORS FOR TWO GLENDALE EVENTS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Back-to-back events in Historic Downtown Glendale signal the start of spring with popular events known as Paris in the Spring, March 2 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and the Open Air Market, which runs 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This is an opportunity to experience the fine food, culture and shopping of Paris without making a trip half-way around the world. Bring along your beret and enjoy entertainment, an art show, French Market, shopping and dining all with a Parisian theme. Start at the Glendale Visitor Center to pick up a walking and event map. Event activities include a Paris fashion show, cookie decorating and a special Plein Air event, featuring artists illustrating real-life outdoor scenes. Some artwork will be available for sale. Plein Air artists are sponsored by the city of Glendale Public Art Program, a division of Parks, Recreation and Library Services.

The Open Air Market, adjacent to A Mad Hatter's Antiques, features antiques, collectibles, art, treasures, crafts and food. For vendor opportunities, call 623-435-8486.
